General Information

Nagoya

The city of Nagoya (<http://www.city.nagoya.jp/indexe.html>), with a population of over two million, is the principal city of central Japan. The area in and around the city contains a large number of high-tech industries with names known worldwide, such as Toyota, Mitsubishi, Honda, and Sony.

The city's central location, which led old Nagoya to be a transportation junction, is still an advantage for Nagoya's visitors today. Nagoya is close to an abundance of sightseeing spots. From the beautiful seashores of Ise-Shima and Mikawa Bay to the majestic mountains of the Hida region and the Japan Alps, many areas are all within easy reach of Nagoya. Japan's systematic transportation network takes you to major cities, Tokyo, Osaka, Kyoto, etc. in a couple of hours. There also exist direct air services to 31 other cities in Japan and 27 cities abroad.

Passport and Visa

Every foreign visitor entering Japan must have a valid passport. Visitors from countries whose citizens must have visas should apply to a Japanese consular office or diplomatic mission in their respective country at least three months before the intended date of travel. For further details, please contact your travel agent or the local consular office in your country.

Insurance

The organizer cannot accept responsibility for accidents that might occur during the Conference. Delegates are encouraged to obtain travel insurance (medical, personal accident, and luggage) in their home country prior to departure.

Electrical Appliances

The electric supply is 100 volts. The frequency is 60 Hz in western Japan including Nagoya and 50 Hz in eastern Japan including Tokyo and Chiba.

Tipping

Tipping is not required anywhere in Japan, even in hotels, restaurants or taxis.

Climate and Clothing

The temperature in Nagoya during the period of the conference ranges between 20 and 28 degrees, with an average of 23 degrees in Centigrade. It is the comfortable season in Japan, but it is sometimes still hot and humid.

Currency Exchange

Only Japanese Yen is acceptable at regular stores and restaurants. Certain foreign currencies and credit cards may be accepted at a limited number of hotels, restaurants and souvenir shops. Major credit cards are accepted in a number of shops and hotels. However, there are few cashing machines for credit cards in Nagoya. Foreign currency exchange and cashing of traveler's checks can be done at international airports and major hotels. Major banks that handle foreign currency such as US dollar are located in the downtown area. Banks are open from 9:00 to 15:00 on weekdays, closed on Saturday and Sunday. It should be noted that all payments made at the registration desk must be done in Japanese Yen. The exchange rates are 1 US dollar = 132.80 Yen and 1 Euro = 116.32 Yen (at March 25, 2002).

Shopping

Business hour of most department stores is from 10:00 to 19:00. They are open on Saturday, Sundays and national holidays, but closed on either Monday, Wednesday, or Thursday. Business hours for retail shops differ, but most operate from 10:00 to 20:00 and are open on Saturday, Sundays and national holidays. Underground shopping centers are well developed and an underpass connects most buildings in downtown area.
